

Conditions for use of the website

1. General

Preventned B.V. supports organisations in prevention of absence and improvement of health, deployability and productivity. The Work Ability Monitor® website is part of these services, and provides feedback on workability, health and related items, per individual.

2. Data processing and storage

We may have received information on you from your employer for the purpose of the monitor (such as your name, address, date of birth, gender, etc.) This data will be used exclusively for implementation of the Work Ability Monitor® with regard to:

- a. occupational safety and health care;
- b. supervision and treatment of incapacitated employees, health prevention and absenteeism, and stimulation of workability in employees;
- c. visualisation of functional capacity;
- d. scientific research.

3. Supply of information to third parties

Your information will never be supplied to third parties without first explicitly requesting your permission.

However, deviation from this point is possible in consultation with your employer.

Functionaries bound by Medical Confidentiality may have access to your individual results. If this is the case, you will be informed of this by your employer prior to the monitor.

4. Cookies

The website sometimes stores cookies on your system. These cookies have a limited validity (maximum 5 years) and contain information which supports the effective use of this website. If you do not wish to store such cookies, please change your settings in order that cookies may not/cannot be stored on your system.

5. Removal of information

If you would like your information removed, please contact Preventned B.V.

This can be done by email: info@preventned.nl, per fax: +31 (0)30 303 55 90 or in writing as follows:
